

6.3 Test Execution

Test 1 – Incident Creation

Action: Create an incident with the required ticket details.

Expected Result:

The incident should be created successfully.

Screenshot

+-----+
ServiceNow Incident > Create New
+-----
-----+
* Incident Number: INC0010001
* Caller: Abel Tuter
* Category: Software
* Subcategory: Email
* Short Description: User unable to access Microsoft Outlook email service
* State: New [Submit] [Save]
+-----+

Caption:

Figure 1: Incident Creation Test

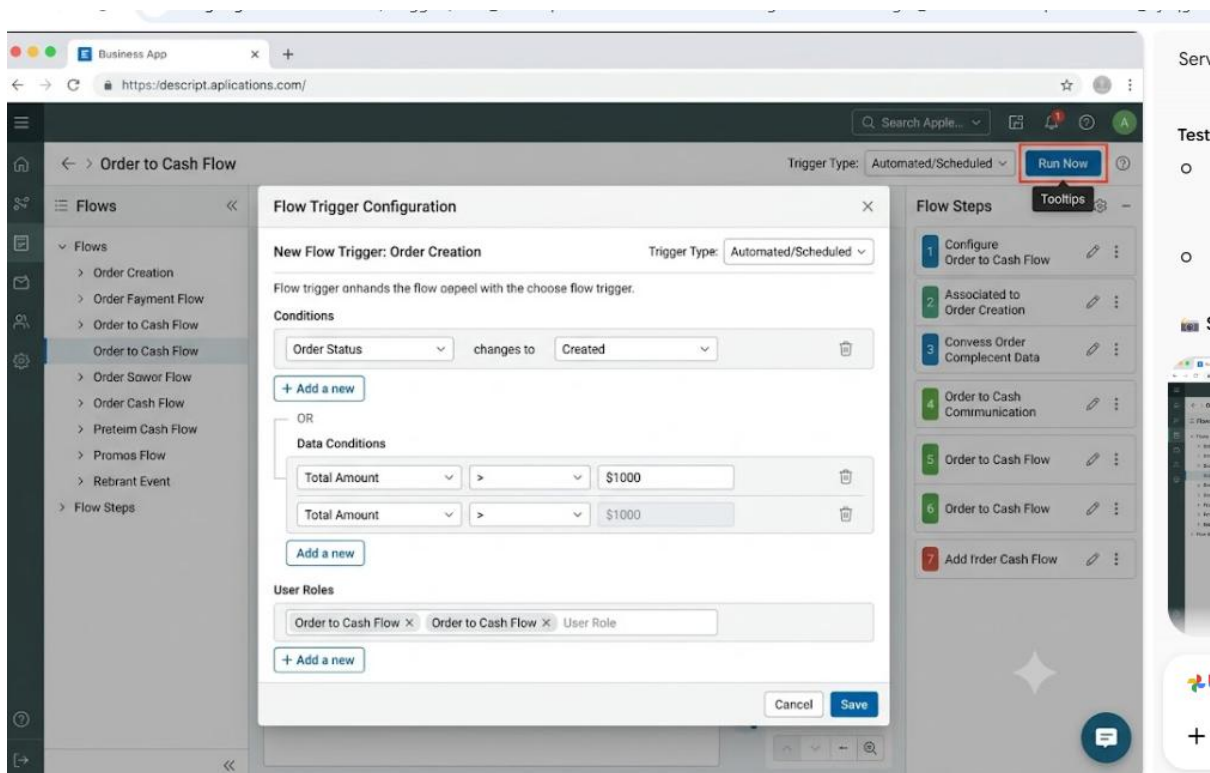

Test 2 – Flow Trigger

Action: Create/update the incident according to the configured trigger condition.

Expected Result:

The Flow Designer flow should be triggered

Screenshot:

Caption:

Figure 2: Flow Trigger Test

Test 3 – Ticket Classification

Action: Provide ticket information that matches the configured classification condition.

Expected Result:

The ticket should be classified according to the configured condition

Screenshot:

```
+-----+
| ServiceNow | Incident > INC0010001 |
+-----+
-----+
|
|
| Incident Number: INC0010001 |
| Short Description: Unable to connect to corporate VPN network |
|
|
| [ Classification Logic Matched] |
| * Category: Network <-- (Auto Classified) |
| * Subcategory: VPN <-- (Auto Classified) |
| * Priority : High |
|
+-----+.
```

Caption:

Figure 3: Ticket Classification Test

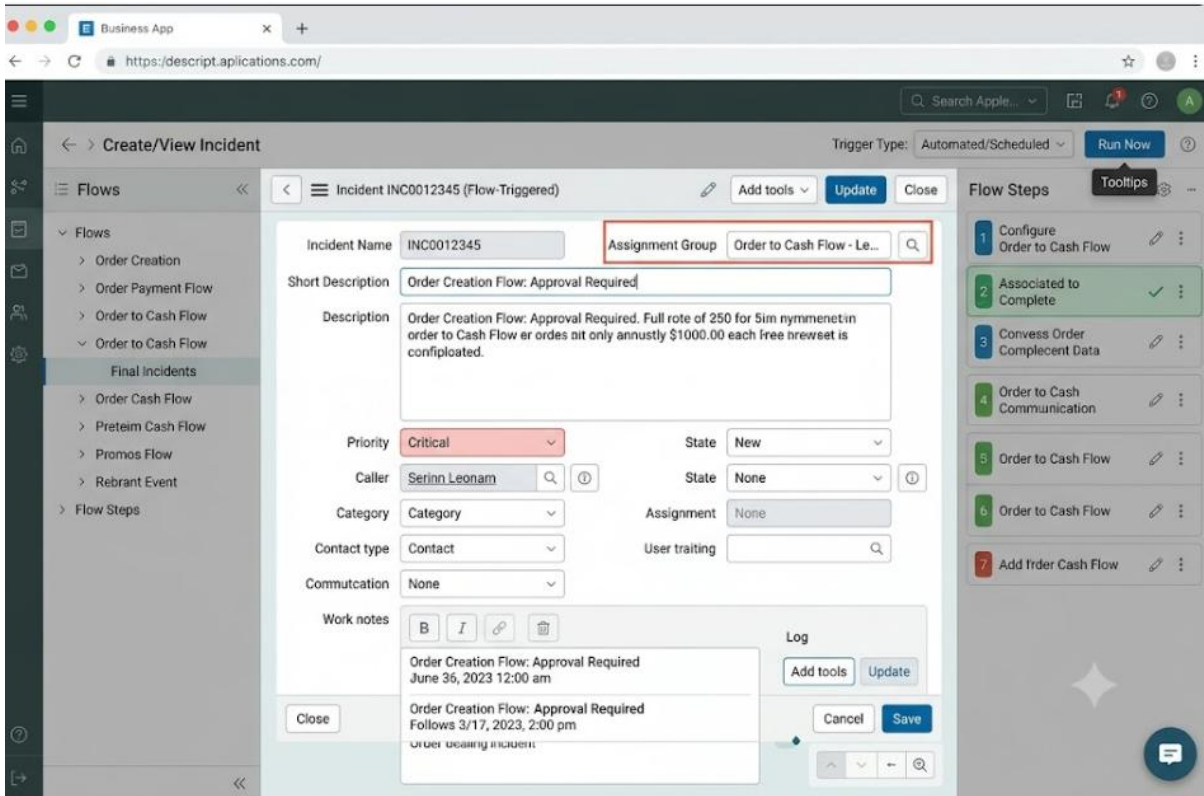

Test 4 – Assignment Group

Action: Check the assignment group after flow execution.

Expected Result:

The ticket should be assigned to the appropriate assignment group.

Screenshot:

Caption:

Figure 4: Assignment Group Test